In 2019, Morimatsu Group invested in establishing a production base in Johor Bahru, Malaysia. Currently, it has 200 employees. The second phase of the plant expansion has cost an investment of 500 million CNY. It is expected that the workforce will increase to 1,000 people in the next Five years.

马来西亚目前面对技术专才，尤其是生产高技能机械领域，而又受过专业培训的专业技工，少之又少，严重短缺，尤其是华裔社群当中。主要原因是华裔报读政府技术学院的意愿不强，再加录取机会不高，而私专则没有专注这方面的课程。因此华裔都不选择此条路径。

In Malaysia, there is currently a severe shortage of skilled technical professionals, especially in the field of high-tech machinery production, who have received professional training. This shortage is particularly acute within the Chinese community. The main reason is that there is a lack of interest among the Chinese community in enrolling in government technical colleges, coupled with limited admission opportunities. Private institutions also do not offer specialized courses in this area. As a result, the Chinese community does not choose this career path.

由上海中桥职业技术大学、森松集团、辅臣集团和马来西亚仁邦人力资讯公司四方联合推出针对马来西亚华裔的技术专才培训计划，目的是为了了解决马来西亚机械制造业技术专才缺口，推动行业解决就业问题，促进中马文化交流，为拓宽马来西亚新一代的就业机会，也符合马来西亚现今推广大量技术专才的政策，满足海外投资者对专业技工的需求。

A joint technical specialist training program targeting Malaysian Chinese is launched by Shanghai Vocational College of Transportation, Morimatsu Group, Fuchun Group, and Malaysia's Renbang Human Resources Information Company. The aim is to address the shortage of technical specialists in Malaysia's machinery manufacturing industry, promote industry employment solutions, facilitate cultural exchanges between China and Malaysia, broaden job opportunities for the new generation in Malaysia, and align with Malaysia's current policy of promoting a large number of technical specialists to meet the demand of overseas investors for skilled workers.
